

Contents

Preface	7
Anja Franke/Andrea Gawrich/Jana Windwehr
Introduction	11
Anja Franke/Andrea Gawrich

Part I: Rentierism in a Superpower – the case of Russia

Russia's Oil and Gas Policy	21
Christian Anders Nygaard
The Oil and Gas Industry and Regional Politics in Russia: Arranging the Distribution of Rents	51
Julia Kuszniir

Part II: Between Europe and Asia – the Caspian Region

Autocratic Stability and Post-Soviet Rentierism – the Cases of Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan	71
Anja Franke/Andrea Gawrich
How to Spend Oil Windfalls in Kazakhstan: a CGE Analysis of Challenges and Options	101
Manfred Wiebelt
The Role of Stabilization and Savings Funds in the Sustainable Management of Natural Resource Revenues: Kazakhstan and Azerbaijan	121
Matthias Lücke/Till Seuring
Turkmenistan: Energy Sector Politics in a Post-Soviet Rentier State	147
Michael Denison

Part III: Implications on Transit Issues

Ukraine's Energy Policy – Caught between Soviet Legacies, Russian
Leverage and European Integration 165
Inna Melnykova

Energy Transit in Central and Eastern Europe: Interpreting Polish
Reactions to the Nord Stream Pipeline through a Spatial-Political Lens 201
Stefan Bouzarovski